

Preschool and Kindergarten families put on their coziest pajamas, gathered their stuffed animals, dolls and blankets and came to school on a dark evening to her Bed Time Stories in the Book Nook!

First Ms. Klimkosky, media specialist, read two books by a beloved author, Mo Willems. Afterwards families made a snack related to one story, Don't let the Pigeon Drive the Bus and did other Mo Willems related activities including a Smart Board game, bean bag toss, and mazes. There were also bins of all our favorite Mo Willems books to read and comfortable bean bag chairs to snuggle in.

Finally Ms. Klimkosky read Mo Willems' Knuffle Bunny as our bed time story. We sang one last lullaby and headed home.

Some of the evening's activities came from Mo Willems website. If your child has a favorite author check the web for activities and information that can broaden their interest.
